

Mexican Propaganda.

Give Mexico a chance! That is a sentiment dove-tailing admirably with the lately promulgated theory of self-determination.

Give ourselves a chance! Give our boys a chance. Give our widowed wives, orphaned children and saddened homes a chance. Give peace a chance, that we may return to our plows and harrows and look to the years ahead. There is sentiment indeed that strikes dear to our hearts!

Why all this cry about an occasional border raid? Better to wipe out the banditry of our Southwest cities than to point our energies toward sporadic ventures across the border. Every day there are murders in our cities; each night there are holdups and safe-blowings vastly more shocking than the petty cattle thievery along the Rio Grande. Yet our press winks with shameful attempts to force our young men to risk their lives, not in a holy cause, but in a foreign guerilla warfare of questionable motive.

Propaganda—what an agent to poison the minds of a conscientious people! A certain circle of bankers, oil concerns, newspapers, politicians—all with interests in Mexico—what traitors to national morals!

It is of interest that the conservative press has not been hoodwinked as yet into advocating war with our sister republic to the South. It is of passing note that Ambassador Fletcher is still unconvinced of the necessity for intervention. It is worthy of remark that the Presbyterian mission in Mexico has never had a quiet year than the last 12 months. In fact, among those who are in position to judge authoritatively, there seems to be a large disposition to support Carranza as against any of a number of revolutionary aspirants to power.

Inside information leads to the conclusion that things are growing steadily better in Mexico. For the next few years—which, if we will let them, can probably be made a period of gradual settling—we should be satisfied with preventive measures.

Let's be content for a while to treat the Mexican situation with a show of patience, courage and optimism, instead of rifles and hand grenades. Perhaps our resistance to the barrage of the propagandists will eventually emerge triumphant.—Farm and Ranch.

Despondency.

Sufferers from despondency are apt to become discouraged and feel that complete recovery is not to be hoped for. No one could make a greater mistake. Hundreds have been permanently cured by taking Chamberlain's Tablets and can now eat anything that they crave. These tablets strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you have not tried them do so at once.

HANDS, ARMS, LIMBS ASLEEP

And Was Run-Down, Weak and Nervous, Says Florida Lady.
Five Bottles of Cardui
Made Her Well.

Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Price, of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child...I got very much run-down and weakened, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time..."

I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr. about my taking Cardui. He said, 'It's a good medicine, and good for that trouble', so he got me 5 bottles. After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved...before taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, this poor circulation disappeared. My strength came back to me and I was soon on the road to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my house-work and attend to my six children besides."

You can feel safe in giving Cardui a thorough trial for your troubles. It contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs, but is composed of mild, vegetable, medicinal ingredients with no bad after-effects. Thousands of women have voluntarily written, telling of the good Cardui has done them. It should help you, too. Try it. E 74
